Happy New Year!

As we optimistically set our sights on the new year to come, we look back at 2021. Thank you for making it a year to remember — from breaking enrollment records to tournament brackets; a year of service, discovery, leading and learning across UNT World. Please enjoy our 2021 Year in Review video.

If you have an HR question or topic but feel like you've seen his name before, and maybe a lot, it's because few law professors in North Texas are more well-known for his teaching and scholarship within the field of law.

If you'd like to nominate a faculty or staff member to spotlight, please email communications@untsystem.edu.

The Deep Side of Dallas

ON THE AIR: DART's expansion hasn't been without flaws; it has laid the groundwork for a future Dallas that's built for transit. The investment that North Texas cities have made in the Dallas Area Rapid Transit has been crucial for people who cannot afford cars. And it's also laid the framework for what a future Dallas looks like.

If you're unfamiliar with the University of North Texas at Dallas, you may know it as a college of the University of North Texas System. The college hosts local news and issues, and explores the past, present and future of Dallas and North Texas. In our podcast, we call it The Deep Side of Dallas.

We Are North Texas. Our World. Our People. Our Community.

Save The Date. UNT World Well-Being Calendar.

For UNT employees, the Employee Assistance Programs available to you as a UNT World employee, it's a great time to check those out as we head into the new tax year, especially as the pandemic continues to grip our lives. Talking to a counselor or doctor can make a difference and your UNT benefits can help.

Botanic Garden's 400-foot concrete corridor. It consists of 18 individual 4' x 4' neon letters that together make a three-dimensional sculpture. It is installed in the center of the garden and consists of the words "MOTHER," "DAUGHTER," and "DAUGHTER." It is a beautiful and inspiring piece of art that celebrates the mother-daughter relationship.
